KING IS SOME HEAVY HIMSELF

Jack Dempsey is such a likable fellow that he is the recipient of many favors. The latest is "King," the heavyweight bulldog who is one of Jack's most faithful training partners. King is with the champion from sunup to taps. He takes the road work and he waits for breakfast until Jack is ready. King likes to sit on the floor by the challenger's chair at meal time and receive toothsome bits of food from Jack's own hand. Jack is rather particular about the big dog and isn't willing for everyone to feed him. He was a gift from a Toledo admirer.

The world is full of "has-beens," On whom the people frown; Nobody cares how high you were After you've tumbled down.

So get out and hustle for yourself Or on pay day you'll be missed; The mill will only grind for you While you supply the gist.

THE KIND.
"I hear the prisoner was in a perfect fever when he found the detectives were on his track."

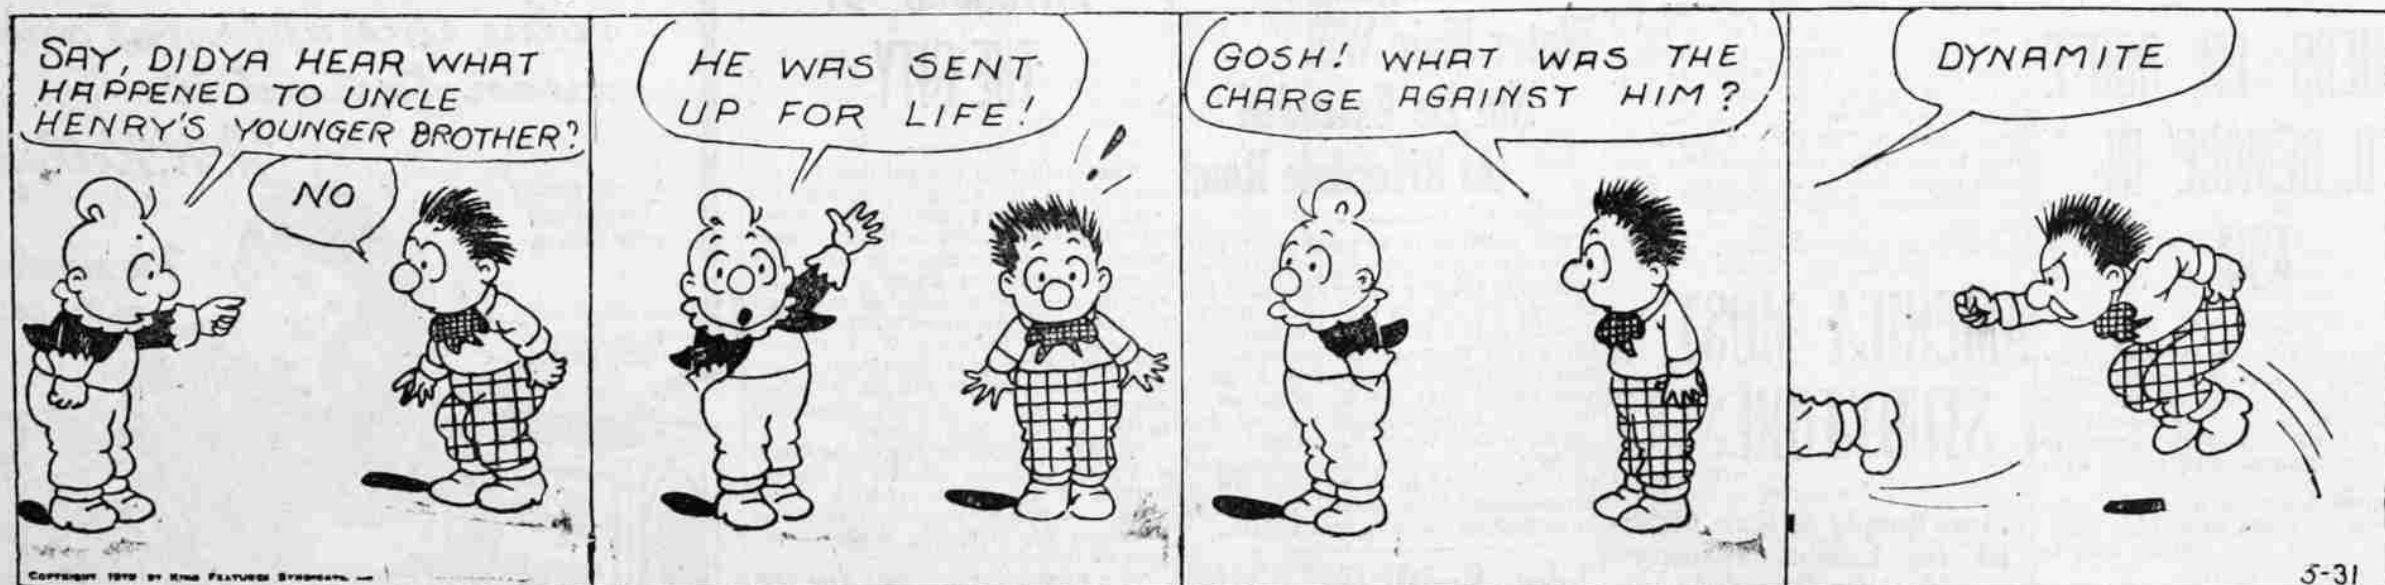

"Then I guess it was the spotted fever."

May the best man win the pretty bridesmaid.
